

Directions to Town Hall in Worthington, MA, 01098

Town Hall is located on Route 112, also called Huntington Road. It is south of the Worthington Post Office, General Store, and Library and North of Ireland Street/Thrasher Hill Road (Note: Ireland Street/Thrasher Hill Road are marked by a red building on the east side of 112 for Jim Molyneaux Realty and a sign for the Sevenares Concerts when heading North on 112)

Wear layers. Be prepared for cool and warm temperatures. There are no gas stations or restaurants within 15 – 20 minutes, but the General Store carries basics and has a gas pump.

From Northampton: (25 minutes)

You can take either route 9 west or route 66. Both cross route 112.

At the corner of routes 66 and 112, you will see a restaurant called The Rapids. Travel roughly 15 minutes north to Town Hall, which will be on your right (white building) across the street from a church with stained glass windows and an elementary school. If you reach a light, you've gone a few minutes too far.

At the corner of route 9 and 112, is a lovely food place called The Creamery. It is roughly 15 minutes to Town Hall from there. Head south on route 112. You will wind this way and that and reach a light, where you will see the General Store and Post Office on your left. Head south on 112 and after a few minutes, you will the Worthington Town Hall on your left right (white building) across the street from a church with stained glass windows and an elementary school.
